Volunteer Coordinator Needed...

Call for applications!

Volunteer Coordinator:
Milford Business Mentoring
Program

Purpose:

The purpose of the highly interactive Milford Business Mentoring Program is to expose entrepreneurially-minded high school students to real-world small business ownership through inspiring discussions with entrepreneurs and downtown Milford business owners, as mentors, making it an innovative method of learning outside of the classroom.

Designed as an eight-week extra-curricular activity, the MBMP is comprised of two components:

- Four interactive learning sessions focused on entrepreneurially-related topics
- Four business mentor shadowing sessions with downtown entrepreneurs

Cultivating the entrepreneurial spirit early on through Main Street initiatives, such as this, help to prevent "brain-drain" as youths are inspired to return to the downtown after college as full-fledged entrepreneurs, ready to take on the full challenges of entrepreneurship, while supporting their hometown.

Will you consider investing time in this community-building initiative?

Volunteer commitment: approximately 5 hours per week, 20 weeks A small stipend is available

A representative of the Delaware Economic Development Office will provide oversight of the program and will actively support the Volunteer Coordinator in coordination and implementation of the initiative.

In concert with the DEDO representative, the Volunteer Coordinator will:

- Recruit students and mentors for the Milford Business Mentoring Program
 - Present the program to Milford Senior High

- School students
 - Visit small businesses in downtown Milford to engage (4-8) merchants
 - Distribute and collect program applications to students and mentors
 - Conduct student interviews to ascertain interest and readiness to participate
 - Coordinate business topical sessions
 - Match students with mentors
 - Monitor online blog site
 - Communicate, as necessary, with parents/guardians of the student participants
 - Attend business topical sessions (directly after school hours) and make initial introduction of student to mentor
- Requirements:
- Believes in the spirit of entrepreneurship! Background in small business preferred but not required
 - Strong organizational skills .Enjoy working with youth. Excellent interpersonal skills
 - Proficient in Microsoft Office. Provide own transportation. Flexible schedule
 - Clean criminal background (will be asked to undergo background check)
 - Commitment to this volunteer position through June 2012 (though program may end earlier)
- How to apply: Please send resume and letter of interest to Lee Nelson at director@downtownmilford.org by Wednesday, August 24, 2011. Downtown Milford Incorporated, 7 South Washington Street, Milford, DE 19963
The Volunteer Coordinator Reports to: Executive Director of DMI and DEDO *VISTA
